MATRIMONIAL.

A brilliant wedding occurred at the Church of the Messiah last Tuesday evening, the Rev. Brooke Herford officiating, at which Miss Emma A. Satterlee, of this city, was married to Mr. Charles H. Fuller, of Cleveland. Miss Belle Tammie and Miss Harvey acted as bridesmaids, and Mrs. Lyman, of Cleveland, and Frederick of Oregon, as matrons. A reception was held at the residence of the bride's uncle, Mr. M. L. Satterlee, No. 888 Michigan avenue. The happy couple were made the recipients of many beautiful presents, in gold, in silver, and in diamonds. Mr. and Mrs. Fuller departed that night for their future home in Cleveland.

Mr. Joseph Ubrig, of the Western Union Telegraph, and Miss Jessie Young, daughter of Robert Young of Englewood, were married Wednesday evening at the Presbyterian Church in Englewood. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Walter Forsyth, and was witnessed by a large number of the friends of the happy couple, every seat in the church being filled. The pulpit was handsomely decorated with flowers. At 8 o'clock the bridal party entered the church in the following order: Miss Nellie Williams, upon the arm of Mr. William Purcell; Miss Clara Brown and Mr. John Young, brother of the bride, followed by the bride and groom. After the ceremony a reception was held at the residence of the bride's father on the third street. A large number of handsome and useful presents were received, among them a check for $100 from the bride's uncle, John Davidson, of Milwaukee; silver cake basket from Col. Wilson, of the Western Union Telegraph Company; a pair of lava vases, Richard Tuckman; silver teapot and burner cooler, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Brown; silver set Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Jones; dinner castor, Mr. and Mrs. John R. Moore; doilies, William Purcell; lace-trimmed for bed, Mrs. E. H. Tennant; silver butter dish, Mrs. Ubrig; cake basket, Mrs. George T. Williams; double pickle castor, Mrs. Nellie Williams; individual castor, Frank Williams; silver tray, Mrs. Williams; bride's father; set of china, brother John; pair of vases, Alexander Young; set teapots, Mrs. G. N. Clark; silver bouquet-holder, Miss Addie Russell; and a silver cigarette case, Mrs. L. D. Parker; lace tray, Miss Alice Clark; and a silver moon; the happy young couple will settle in Englewood.

A brilliant wedding took place at the evening of the 20th instant, in the residence of Mrs. Tyler, No. 73 Walnut street, at which time Miss Emma C. Davidson was united in marriage to Mr. W. Brown, of this city. Mr. Frederick Boudreau and Miss Nellie Boudreau acted as groomsmen and bridesmaids. The Rev. Henry G. Perry, of All Saints' Church, officiated. An elegant collation was served for the guests, after which congratulations, the young couple left for their home.

Mr. W. H. Carson and Miss Flora M. Adcock were united in wedlock, last Thursday evening, at the residence of the bride, No. 9 Bryan place. The wedding was a quiet but elegant affair.

PROSPECTIVE BLISS.

Miss Lizzie Hoyne, daughter of Thomas Hayes, Esq., will be married next Wednesday evening, May 2.

The marriage of Miss Jessie Brayton and Col. Stevenson will be celebrated next Wednesday evening, at the home of the bride, on Vincennes avenue.

Another wedding surprise and commemoration party of Mr. F. O. Meinhard's birthday was of the Principal of the Shaw Seminary, No. 604 West Adams street. So report says.

Miss Lotta A. Hunt will be married to Col. E. Bond next Tuesday evening, at No. 24 South Dearborn street, at which time the couple will meet on the West Side, south of Madison street just east of Ashland avenue, either on Tuesday or Thursday evening. The bride is a member of the Amphon Society of Hindostan, and, wishing to get acquainted, I would give, therefore, preference to a large club whose members are Hindostan. Address, Mrs. Bond, 110 Wabash avenue, Chicago.

A reception will take place on Wednesday evening, May 14, at half-past 6 o'clock, in Zion Temple. A reception will be held at the Zion Temple, No. 881 West Adams street, at 7 o'clock.

LONGFELLOW AND BRYANT ENTERTAINMENT.

An entertainment of unusual interest took place at the Douglas School, Orville T. Bright, Principal, on Friday afternoon last, in connection with the hanging of the portraits of Longfellow and Bryant, which were in consonance with this event, the recitations, songs, and essays by the pupils were connected with the works of the two poets. The day was a success, and the Amphon Society of Hindostan, and under whose direction Mrs. E. R. E. Carpenter, under whose management this Society has attained a degree of prominence during the past season that is unequalled.

The silver wedding of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Watson was celebrated at their residence, No. 437 North LaSalle street, last Friday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. John R. Moore, of Englewood, were married at the Zion Temple, No. 881 West Adams street, at 7 o'clock.

SUNDAY, APRIL 27, 1879.

The trial of PETER E. STEVENS, for the murder of his child-wife in June of last year, was brought to a close yesterday, and the case submitted to the jury in a powerful and eloquent argument by State's-Attorney MILLER. At the time of going to press the fate of the prisoner was uncertain, the twelve men into whose hands it had been confided being still out.

Even in this age of bloodthirsty and unpunished murders, the criminal record of RICHARDS, who was executed at Winden, Nebraska, yesterday, stands out conspicuously in its extent and absolute freedom from redeeming or palliating features. To the butchery of ANDERSON and the HARAZON family, with the details of which the public is familiar, he added numerous other murders, having begun a systematic career of killing when scarcely at the age of manhood, and continued in it until stopped by a hangman's noose. Not one of the twenty or more murders to which he has confessed was the slightest provocation, but in spite of this fact no attempt to prove the insanity of RICHARDS was made, and he died as he lived—a stoic brute.

Michigan has been peculiarly fortunate during the present session of Congress in developing among her representatives in that body an unexpected amount of oratorical talent, combined with that rare quality in legislative bodies, common sense. The latest star in the Michigan galaxy is Mr. HORN, a gentleman who, since his election last fall, has been noticeable only for the profound silence which enwrapped him. Yesterday, however, he concluded to speak on the Legislative bill, and astonished his hearers by a display of eloquence and humor which would have done credit to PROCTOR KNOTT in his palmy days. Mr. HORN's characterization of the schemes of the Democrats and Greenbackers, and his sarcastically pleasant advice to the Southern Brigadiers, in which he advised their constituents to "raise more hogs and less hell," were exceedingly happy and apropos.

The sensational of the day in France is the apparently impending trouble between Church and State on the question of the Educational bill recently introduced by JULES FENAY. The bill will be violently attacked by MONSIEUR FORCADE, Archbishop of Aix, who in a "pastoral" denounced its provisions the most bitter and emphatic manner, claiming that they were intended as an attack upon ecclesiastical teachers, and an onslaught on Catholic colleges and universities. On the other hand, LAFÈVE, Minister of the Interior, without deigning to reply to the allegations of FORCADE, says that of a priest so far forges himself as to attack the institutions of the country from the pulpit, his deviations from the path in which his duty plainly lay would be promptly and effectually suppressed. From present appearance it would seem that Monsieur FORCADE's radicalism is likely to result in his personal extinction.

A bill of the most questionable character has been ordered to a third reading in the State Senate. It is a bill to repeat the present requirement that no person shall be committed to or confined in an insane asylum without the judgment of a court, and the finding of a jury, and full notice to all persons concerned. The bill now pending provides substantially that upon the certificate of any two physicians any person may be arrested and committed to a lunatic asylum, and detained there, the physicians to make a private examination. The same bill recognizes private mad-houses, and legalizes the imprisonment of persons therein when certified by two physicians to be insane. This bill is going backward in the course of civilization and humanity. Our existing law was the result of a long series of abuses under the private system. The special case which aroused public indignation was the act of a minister of the Gospel, by the aid of two physicians, committing his wife to the Insane Asylum, and keeping her there for years, when in fact she was sane, but not as wicked, as he was. The private mad-houses, and the system of private arrests upon the certificates of physicians, furnish a history of crime and baseness that certainly must have been overlooked by the State Senate, or they would not have treated this bill with favor. No such bill should be tolerated. As a convenient mode of getting persons out of the way, and of getting possession of other people's property, this private system is most abominable. The public system broke up the practice of mad physicians, whose business was as corrupt and as dishonorable as that of the "divorce-without-publicity" lawyers. The shysters divorcees and the doctors' mad certificates have long become equivalents in dishonesty and corruption, and as aids to scandalous frauds and cruelties. Let us hope the Legislature will not now revive either of the disgraceful systems.

It is said that Mr. TILDEN still relies upon the potency of the old "bar" to secure the nomination in 1880, as he did in 1876. Not in exactly the same way, however. Then it was first unleashed at the Convention in St. Louis, but now he is to depend on it as a powerful motive that will act indirectly but powerfully in his favor. One of his schemes is said to be to take advantage of the colored exodus and colonization of the South, and to bring the negro to his own account if possible. But the project will hardly be successful. The States referred to—Indiana especially—were never popular places with the blacks for settlement, partly on account of the rigorous climate and partly on account of the unjust and discriminating laws against them. And the negro is not likely to flee from the bulldozing Democrat to seek the affiliation of his narrow-minded Northern prototype—not if he knows himself. PETER H. SMITH, Col. PEIXOT, or almost any of the old opponents, can tell Mr. TILDEN how he can use his money to much better advantage than spend it in trying to bait the negro. Such an investment would be much worse than the attempt to purchase an Electoral vote.

The office of Comptroller of the City of Chicago is an important one, in the sense that that officer is the auditor and book-keeper of the city. The time has passed when he had important and extensive financial duties to perform. The City of Chicago is no longer a borrower of money; it has no loans to negotiate or debts to contract. The inexorable law has inexorably put an end to all that kind of business. The Comptroller is now the book-keeper, to audit all the city's accounts, to keep the books of the city's assets, to charge the Collector and the Treasurer, and to certify to what they receive, and what they have on hand, and what they are authorized to pay out. The Comptroller can hardly be said to be an executive officer, except in the sense that a book-keeper is an executive officer under the direction of the Mayor. Among those who are presented to the Mayor as fit persons to be appointed to the office are Messrs. S. S. HAYES, JOHN FORSYTH, and T. T. GUNNAR. Other gentlemen in his extent and absolute freedom from redeeming or palliating features. To the butchery of ANDERSON and the HARAZON family, with the details of which the public is familiar, he added numerous other murders, having begun a systematic career of killing when scarcely at the age of manhood, and continued in it until stopped by a hangman's noose. Not one of the twenty or more murders to which he has confessed was the slightest provocation, but in spite of this fact no attempt to prove the insanity of RICHARDS was made, and he died as he lived—a stoic brute.

MR. HARRISON'S APPOINTMENTS.

It has become pretty evident that Major-elect HARRISON will yield to the party pressure to "place none but Democrats on guard." This course is somewhat different from Mr. HARRISON's declaration just after the election, that he would proceed very cautiously in making any changes, and that, while he should give preference to Democrats in all cases of new appointment, he would be inclined to retain those in place who had demonstrated their usefulness to the city. But there is necessarily a good deal of the politician about Mr. HARRISON, and it is not very surprising that he should yield to the enormous pressure which has been brought to bear upon him. The Democrats will be in full possession of the city offices for the first time since the late FAIRMAN SHERMAN held the office under Mayor SHEPPARD, and again under Mayor COLVIN. He has the great recommendation of experience. His long service ought to have made him familiar with the duties, and his high character for integrity strongly commends him to the Mayor. Mr. FORSYTH is like Mr. HORN, a citizen of Chicago for many years. Though he has never held office, his capacity and his character for integrity will not be questioned in Chicago, nor through the State, where he is also well known. Mr. GUNNAR has been in active business in this city for many years, and his ability is conceded, as is his integrity. It is fortunate for the Mayor that in making his choice he will be sure to appoint a Democrat and a man in whose fidelity the public will have confidence. If the selection be an embarrassing one,—the three candidates being personal and political friends of the Mayor,—perhaps the next satisfactory course for him to do is to continue Mr. FARWELL, the present experienced and universally acceptable Comptroller, in office for the next two years.

THE WOMEN Nihilists.

Either Russian women are different in organization, character, and education from the other women of the world, or they have demonstrated that the sex has been grossly maligned in one particular. There is a time-worn tradition common among nearly all people, and expressed in some aphorism in nearly all languages, that a woman can't keep a secret. But it is a fact that women form a large part of the membership of the Russian secret society known as Nihilists, which is probably the most extensive and formidable political conspiracy that ever existed. The women of this sect are among the most devoted, trusted, and active members; and second is the first and most essential qualification for good membership, since he had the right to go where he pleased. He could sit on the Democratic side of the house, and the men of the Democratic party, when he was in the house, would be compelled to sit on the Nihilist side.

They are enforcing a Sunday-law in Newark for some purpose. The moralists have put it in force against the liquor-dealers and saloonkeepers, who are required to close their houses, side-doors included, at 12 o'clock Saturday night, and the same is true of such people as the waiters, Sunday newspapers, and so on, to the end of the chapter. Last Monday they had 126 complaints for violating the Sunday-law, chiefly against barbers, milkmen, bakers, and cigar vendors. Between the two parties it is thought that Sunday in Newark hereafter will be a very quiet and proper day.

FINANCE AND TRADE.

Governments Steady --- Foreign Exchange More Active.

Chicago Making Heavy Remittances to New York—The Stock Market.

The Produce Markets Generally Quiet—Provisions Easier, but Cereals Firm—Bulls Higher.

An Advance in Wheat—Other Grain Steady—Movement of Produce for the Week.

FINANCIAL.

Government bonds were steady. Prices remained about the same as on the day before. The food market continues good, and the dealers who hold the largest stocks are nearly sold out.

In foreign exchange transactions were more active. The offerings of bills were larger, either on account of new orders, or the opening of navigation. Prices were steady. In Chicago sterling grain bills were 484¢, and French were strong at 500¢/502¢. The actual Chicago rates for sterling were 480¢ and 487¢, and 488¢. In New York the actual rates were 486 and 486¢ and 487¢. The posted rates for sterling were 487 and 488¢. French bankers' bills were 517¢ and 518¢.

Consuls have weakened, in consequence probably of the departure of floating London capital to monetary centers on the Continent, while their interest is paid. The posted rates of 481 to 482 1/2, and then with a rise of 2¢ to 482 1/2.

Chicago grain clearings—$3,500,000, less than that for any preceding day of the week. Discounts are in moderate demand, with a downward tendency. Rates are 487 per cent on call, with some transactions at 5 per cent, the current rate is 486 per cent, and some small loans are made at 4810 per cent. The current of remittances is still strongly in favor of New York. The demand for exchange is strong, and the supply, though good, is not large enough to meet it.

The clearings of the Chicago banks for the week are reported as follows by Manager D. H. Hale, of the Chicago Clearing-House:

Day.	Amount.	Balance.
Monday.	$ 9,869,539	$ 368,785
Tuesday.	2,718,592	254,151
Wednesday.	2,662,052	200,707
Thursday.	2,621,179	206,737
Friday.	2,505,811	186,789
Total.	$16,121,229	$ 508,650

Corresponding week last year: $13,967,388, $1,420,387.

There were sales of North Division City Rail-way bonds at 105¢ and interest, and of Cook County 5 per cent at 100¢ and interest.

Realizations were the order of the day in stocks, and under the pressure to sell there was a decline in some of the recently prominent features, especially St. Joe. In some quarters it is held that the market has broken for good, and that the leading operators having made heavy profits will now retire for the summer.

New York Central has rallied at last, and went up from 48 to 48 1/2, to close at 47 1/2.

For a wonder, it was unanticipated by the report that Jay Gould has bought the control of the road. The Northwesterns and St. Pauls were depressed, probably for speculative reasons. This downward move may be the first play of the Chicago clique, who have now got the innings in the Wall-street game. Northwest common opened at 60, and sold at the close at the lowest point of the day, 58¢; the preferred went without a rally from 60 to 59¢.

St. Paul common lost 1/2, to 40¢; and the preferred 1/2, to 31¢.

One of the odd features of the market has been the number of the investment stocks listed, and the excitement they then Rock Island gave. It was a sign of life by themselves from 131¢ to 151¢. Illinois Central improved 3¢, to 83¢; and Michigan Central, 3¢, to 82¢.

The war in the Southwest did not prevent a rise of 3¢ in Alton, to 71. St. Joe lost a large part of Friday's gain, and declined from 20 to 18¢ for the common, and from 48¢ to 41¢ for the preferred. The coal stocks were shorn of a part of their late gains. Delaware & Hudson opened and closed at 40. Lackawanna advanced from 53¢ to 54¢, but finally sold at 53¢. Jersey Central gained 3¢, to 45¢, reduced to 44¢, and closed at 44¢. The Gould combination stocks were strong, and West. 3¢ to 74 1/2; Erie 3¢ to 66¢; and West. 3¢ to 53¢. The Pacific rose from 46 to 48, went out at 47¢; Kansas City & Northern lost 1/2, to 12¢, and the preferred 1/2, to 37¢. St. Louis & San Francisco common was 5¢ better, at 94¢, and the preferred 5¢ better, at 11. The first preferred was 22¢.

Northwestern gold bonds were 112¢; St. Paul Sinking Funds, 106; Burlington, Cedar Rapids & Northern, 75¢; and Alton gold, 66, 106¢/107¢. Missouri, Kansas, and Texas first were 68¢.

BY TELEGRAPH.

NEW YORK.—The Western Associated Press. New York, April 26.—Governments firm. Railroad securities generally strong. State bonds dull.

The stock market to-day was decidedly irregular. Graener shares weak, feverish, and declined 3¢/4¢ on the day's transactions. Coal shares strong, and under free purchases advanced 3¢/4¢ per cent, but in the final dealing of the day were in active movement. West-point shares were the most active. Wabash fluctuated between 51¢ and 53¢, closing at 52¢. Hannibal & St. Joe, after advancing 1¢ per cent, fell 2¢ on common and 3¢ on preferred. Kansas Pacific dropped from 46¢ to 45¢, but advanced to 48. Louisville & Nashville rose from 52 to 54¢. Trunk line shares presented a special feature. The general market closed flat.

TRANSACTIONS.—24,000; Erie, 5,500 Lake Shore, 20,000; Wabash, 11,000 Northwestern common, 4,000 preferred; St. Paul & Fort Pepin, 4,000; Michigan Central, 15,000; New Jersey Central, 4,000; Delaware & Hudson, 4,000; Morris & Essex, 1,100; Michigan Central, 1,100 Illinois Central, 1,100; Union Pacific, 2,600; C. & C. & St. Louis, 1,000; St. Paul & Milwaukee, 5,000; preferred, 2,000; Ohio & Mississippi, 2,400; Western Union, 3,500; St. Louis, Kansas City & Northern, common, 9,000 preferred; St. Paul & Milwaukee, 1,700; Kansas Pacific, 2,500; St. Louis & San Francisco, and 1,600; St. Louis & San Francisco.

Money market easy at 24¢/24 per cent, closing at 24¢ per cent. Prime mercantile paper, 94¢. Stock market, 106. Commodity market.

MARRIAGE LICENSES.

The Complete Returns for Last Week.

Interesting Information of a Geographical, Biographical, and Statistical Nature.

During the week ending yesterday the number of marriages to marry issued by the County Clerk was ninety. Of this number only one was granted to a girl under age. On the other hand, there were ten men of 60 or more years of waiting married or widowed. Some of the sexagenarians expect a dozen or half a year. One young man who had reached "that delightful age which makes all female ages easy" and had seen as many summers as had Don Juan when he attracted the notice of the Empress Carlotta, was 62. Another was 55, his wife 49, and his son an infant of 22. They have worldly possessions a widow of 35. They have scolding and irreligious clerks in the office of the County Clerk, civil and criminal, who are not to be found. Yesterday it was all occasions ladies applying for licenses to wed gave the full tale and enumeration of their names and the names of their husbands. The list ends with the nose of doubt, and the interviewee one answered, "You can't always tell."
